Minutes of August meeting

Proposed by Lorna, seconded by Andrew, the minutes were signed as a true record.

Financial report

Jim has sent the return to the Charity Commission. The chair was dismayed to hear about the tone of the recent correspondence purporting to be the final notice when, in fact, it was the first and only notice.

Cheques have been written for sitting yoga, plus routine room rent for the Methodist Church, Tech Mates and YC and for the wreath for Remembrance Sunday.

District Councillors' report

No councillors' were free to attend the meeting, their report will be sent on separately.

Parish Council updates

With no representative at the meeting, refer to the PC website.
Next meeting Wednesday 26th at 7pm at Vicarage Lane building.

Additional updates from those present

Andrew said the next Gardening Club talk would be on Monday 14th November at 8pm (second Monday in the month) with a talk on gardening related photography.

St Anne's Craft Fayre in the Parish Rooms will be on Saturday 5th November from 10 -3.

The Methodist Christmas Fair will be on Saturday 19th November 10 -3.
There will be Christmas Bingo on 25th November in the Methodist building.
Look out for posters with details.

John said the only sessions for youth held on Tuesdays at the YC are successful. Elaine's initiative for people who do not have access to the internet has been a big undertaking and so worthwhile. The main folder of information will be kept at the library, where it will be updated weekly with help from the librarians. New information about forthcoming events will also be added to folders kept at the Methodist Church, St Anne's Parish Rooms and the Plough and Harrow. Sessions re Ancestry are held at the library on Wednesdays between 11 and 1.

AOB

There was none.
